The Kefar Needs an Illustrator ASAP

My name is T'helah Ben-Dan, and I'm the founder and operator of The Kefar. I am hiring an illustrator for my next children's book, which tells the story of Shifrah and Puah, two brave Israelite midwives who defied Pharaoh.

I need 11 images in all:

- 1 cover illustration
- 9 full-page illustrations for the inside
- 1 border illustration for the text pages

The finished book size will be 8" x 10", so your illustrations must be 8.125" x 10.25" or larger to account for bleed and trim; they must be quality, high resolution pictures with a minimum of 300 dpi; and they must be delivered to me in .jpg, .tif, or .png formats.

The finished illustrations are for commercial use in a published book, and the illustrator will be credited on the cover for his or her work. Further compensation (i.e. royalties) may be provided.

THE DEADLINE FOR FINAL ILLUSTRATIONS IS MARCH 18, 2017. Before applying, please be sure you will be able to complete the job on time. This includes time needed for sketches, drafts, revisions, etc.

TO APPLY: Please send examples of your work (a link to an online portfolio is fine), a price quote, any terms or conditions you have, and your contact information to info@thekefar.com, with the subject line "Best Illustrator Ever." The deadline for submissions is Feb 14, 2017.

If you have any questions, send them to me at info@thekefar.com. Thanks for your interest and I hope to be working with one of you!
